

Sights of Belfast

1 – Can you locate Belfast on the map?

Read the two clues below and draw a red pin after you in A, B, C, D, E or F.

a) You already know that Belfast is in Northern Ireland.

b) The city of Belfast is situated on the eastern coast and borders the North Channel, which constitutes a maritime frontier with Scotland.

Seamus the intern

2 – It's not easy being an intern in one's first days at work! Seamus, the intern of the tourist office in Belfast is in charge of making a leaflet listing the sights of the capital of Northern Ireland, yet he is so stressed that he struggles remembering their names. Name the sights to give him a hand.

3 – Now that you completed this task successfully, match the sights with their corresponding descriptions.

- 1): the seat of the Northern Ireland Assembly, the devolved legislative branch for the region.
- 2): a place of Anglican worship in Neo-Romanesque style located in the heart of Belfast, containing beautiful mosaics, stone carvings.
- 3): a famous venue offering a unique fairytale setting, stunning views & gardens. The perfect backdrop for weddings, conferences & social events.
- 4): a ten-metre long ceramic-tiled fish created by John Kindness, located on Donegall Quay, echoing different aspects of the history of Belfast.
- 5): the 2016 winner of World’s Leading Visitor Attraction which tells you all about the most famous ship’s sinking.
- 6): one of Belfast’s oldest attractions and recognized as one of the best markets in the UK, awarded for its fresh, local produce and great atmosphere.
- 7): Belfast's home of international art exhibitions, best live theatre, top shows and events, located in Cathedral quarter.
- 8): a boat used as a vibrant interactive museum which tells the story of Belfast's proud maritime history.
- 9): a public park gathering greenhouses, rose gardens, exotic tree displays & impressive plant collections from the Southern hemisphere.
- 10): Belfast's largest shopping centre, topped by an iconic dome. It is home to House of Fraser, luxury brands, restaurants and a cinema.
- 11): the iconic civic building in Belfast, located in Donegall Square. A ‘Titanic Memorial’ is to be found in one of its gardens.
- 12): a popular venue located near the river Lagan in South Belfast, which offers daffodil gardens, wildflower meadows and mountain bike trails.
- 13): a tourist venue where visitors enjoy discovering various wild animal species coming from different parts of the globe.
- 14): a prestigious theatre in Belfast where people can enjoy high-quality stage performances – dance, singing, drama.
- 15): a former detention centre from the Victorian period (19th century) which was turned into a museum where you can learn about the living conditions of the prisoners.