The worksheet features three rows of dotted lines for handwriting practice. The first row contains a series of arches (bridges) starting with an upward arrow. The second row shows a horse's head on the left, followed by a series of stylized flower or leaf motifs. The third row shows a grasshopper's head on the left, followed by a series of maple-like leaf motifs. Each row has a starting arrow indicating the direction of the stroke.

This worksheet is designed for letter tracing practice. It features two rows of dotted lines. The top row contains a series of arches (bridges) starting with a downward arrow. The bottom row contains a series of large, bold, dark grey 'U' shaped letters, each with a vertical stem, followed by several blank vertical lines for independent tracing practice.
