

Group work Document 1 (relatively easy) :

the immigrants' origins : which part of the world do they come from ? Put the languages in the right column (at least three languages for each part of the world)

Western Europe	Central Europe	The Far East	Africa

Find the names of the countries corresponding to the following adjectives (ex. : Italian - Italy)

Mandarin : Romanian : Turkish :
 Pakistani: Welsh:
 Afrikaner: Swiss:
 Persian: Chinese:
 Dutch :

Take down a few notes (not sentences) and REPHRASE them to give an oral commentary of your document to your partners along those lines :

What kind of document is it ? What is the possible origin of the document ? What is the possible goal of the document ? Why did those people come to Britain ? (give several reasons according to their origins).

Group work Document 2 : Robbin Cook Chicken Masala Speech (medium difficulty)

Find an acceptable translation of the words in bold letters using the context.

Who is speaking ? :

What is the precise nature of the document :

What - for some people - are the two reasons explaining that British identity is in danger.

.....

What are the words introducing each of those reasons :

Fill in the following table.

Multiculturalism : the negative vision	Multiculturalism : the positive vision

Which side is the narrator for ?

Organise your notes (REPHRASE the information) to give an oral summary of your documents to your partners.

Group work Document 3. Is Multicultural Britain Dead ? (relatively easy)

Read the text and then find a suitable translation to the words in bold letters using the context, word construction, etc...

right-wingers : to conjure up:
..... the mainstream: to
disavow: a rainbow nation:
..... a melting pot: to intermingle: stares: a world away:

Look at the source at the bottom and try to define the nature of the document :

.....
Three opinions are expressed in this text. Looking at the text identify who says what.

« Britain used to be a country where people from different origins lived peacefully together » :

.....
« Britain is now « a rainbow nation ». People from different origins live separately. » :

.....
« Multiculturalism was a positive change for Britain. » :

Pick out the sentence showing that the situation is not so positive as before.

.....
Organise and REPHRASE your notes to give an oral account of your document to your partners.

Group work Document 4 What is the Commonwealth ? (Very easy)

Read the text and find a suitable translation for the following words in bold letters using the context, word-formation, etc...):

to rule : to wane: made up of:
..... global: the aim:
..... to promote: trade links:
..... a survey:

Use your phone to find general information in English about the British Empire. REPHRASE this information in a short sentence.

.....
What is the event considered as starting point of The Commonwealth of Nations :

.....
People from member countries know very well how The Commonwealth of Nations works :

.....
Organise and REPHRASE your notes to give an oral account of your document to your partners.