

1 Your legendary creatures challenge

1. Read each creature's name and definition, then match it with the right image.

a. Banshee: female spirit who announces the death of a family member, by lamenting.

b. Changeling: fairy* child left in place of a human child stolen by fairies (in Scotland and Ireland).

*fairy: fée

c. Gwylgi: frightful mythical dog with red eyes that appears in Wales's lonely roads at night.

d. Leprechaun: little mischievous* Irish creature; if captured by a human, he will grant three wishes exchange for his freedom.

*mischievous: maléfique

e. Merlin: Welsh wizard linked to King Arthur's legend.

f. Nessie: a monster that has been reported in Loch Ness, in Scotland since the 6th century.

2. What do all these creatures have in common?

1

3

5

2

4

6

1 Your legendary creatures challenge

1. Read each creature's name and definition, then match it with the right image.

a. Banshee: female spirit who announces the death of a family member, by lamenting.

b. Changeling: fairy* child left in place of a human child stolen by fairies (in Scotland and Ireland).

*fairy: fée

c. Gwylgi: frightful mythical dog with red eyes that appears in Wales's lonely roads at night.

d. Leprechaun: little mischievous* Irish creature; if captured by a human, he will grant three wishes exchange for his freedom.

*mischievous: maléfique

e. Merlin: Welsh wizard linked to King Arthur's legend.

f. Nessie: a monster that has been reported in Loch Ness, in Scotland since the 6th century.

2. What do all these creatures have in common?

1

3

5

2

4

6