

Rugby : language at work

Look carefully at the sentences below :

Many countries play rugby.	Today, rugby is played by many countries.
1. Surligner le groupe verbal	1. Surligner le groupe verbal
2. Comment se compose-t-il ?	2. Comment se compose-t-il ?
3. Le sujet grammatical agit-il sur le verbe ? ☐ oui ☐ non	3. Le sujet grammatical agit-il sur le verbe ? ☐ oui ☐ non
Que pouvez-vous en conclure ?	Que pouvez-vous en conclure ?

 Now your turn :

a. Underline the verb, pay attention to the tense, then turn the following sentences into the passive.

- Young people at Rugby school played rugby.
.....
- In 1823, a boy picked up a football and ran with it.
.....
- In 1845, boys at the school wrote the rules of the game.
.....
- 15 people play the game.
.....
- Then, they taught the game to other people.
.....
- They played the first international game in 1871.
.....
- Australia won two World Cup titles.
.....
- Some teams perform war dances before matches.
.....
- In 2019, Wales knocked out France in the quarter finals.
.....
- A lot of people support the French team.
.....