

COURSE 12 : Révisions !

Quelques révisions avant la tâche finale la semaine prochaine et la fin de notre séquence !

1. Choisis entre la voix active et la voix passive !

- 1 Observe bien les sujets de ces phrases, puis choisis entre la voix active ou la voix passive :

A graffiti artist (catch) red-handed in my street yesterday. He (apologize) for spray-painting on my neighbour's house. One of the walls (cover) with graffiti! I actually (find) it quite nice, but my neighbour said the graffiti should (remove).

- 2 Utilise les informations fournies pour parler de ce film :

Release date: 2010
Genre: Documentary film
Director: Banksy
Producer: Jaimie D'Cruz
Narrator: Rhys Ifans
Music by: Geoff Barrow

A Banksy film
Exit Through the Gift Shop
The world's first Street Art disaster movie...

One of the most inspired, adroit, hilarious debut features ever!
- Amy Poehler, TIME OUT NEW YORK

"EXHILARATING AND INVENTIVE."
- David Faux, TIME OUT NEW YORK

"A sly satire of celebrity, consumerism, and the art world."
- John Horn, LA TIMES

"FUNNY AS HELL!"
- Theresa LaForce, THE NEW YORKER

2. Exprime ton point de vue avec should, will, may...

3 Choisis les modaux qui conviennent pour compléter ce dialogue :

Mayor: No one deface walls. It's a crime and it's not art.

Journalist: Some street-artists are very famous and influent. Do you think these artists stop drawing in cities just because mayors condemn street art?

Mayor: If they know the police arrest them and judges punish them severely, that make them think twice about doing it again.

Journalist: How street artists act more legally?

Mayor: Well, out of respect for residents, they ask for permission first, at least.

4 On veut effacer un tag de Banksy que tout le quartier appréciait pourtant. Imagine ce que pourraient dire les personnes suivantes :

residents artists policemen Mayor

Residents :

Artists :

Policemen :

Mayor :

HOMEWORK :

On a vu tous les verbes irréguliers essentiels. Tu peux maintenant t'entraîner régulièrement sur quizlet pour être sûr de ne pas les oublier au fur et à mesure : <https://quizlet.com/Sophienglish/folders/verbes-irreguliers/sets>

COURSE 12 : CORRECTION

1. Choisis entre la voix active et la voix passive !

1 was caught – apologized – was covered – found – be removed

2 Exit Through the Gift Shop was released in 2010. It's a documentary film by Banksy. The producer was Jaimie D'Cruz and the narrator Rhys Ifans. The music was created by Geoff Barrow.

2. Exprime ton point de vue avec should, will, may...

3 should–will–may–may–will–may–should

4 Exemples de productions:

Residents: Oh no, we really like this work of art, we want to keep it. It's part of our street.

Artists: That is outrageous! You are destroying public art. It's unfair.

Policemen: It's a shame really, but in the end it is vandalism.

Mayor: This graffiti is defacing my town. We need to remove it.