HAVE GOT = HAVE

C'est une manière plus naturelle d'exprimer les liens de parenté ou la possession.

Forme affirmative au présent :

I have got

You have got

He, she, it has got

We have got

You have got

They have got

Forme négative :

I haven't got your keys.

Forme interrogative:

Have you got a sister?

A family portrait

1) Listen to Frank's description as you read the text.

2) Write down the words related to physical description in the text. Do you remember their meaning?

FRANK

He's got a long square face and short black hair. He's got a small nose, small ears and a big smile but he is ugly. He's very tall and very big. His feet are very big. He's got a white and blue shirt, a red tie and a blue suit: a blue blazer and blue trousers.

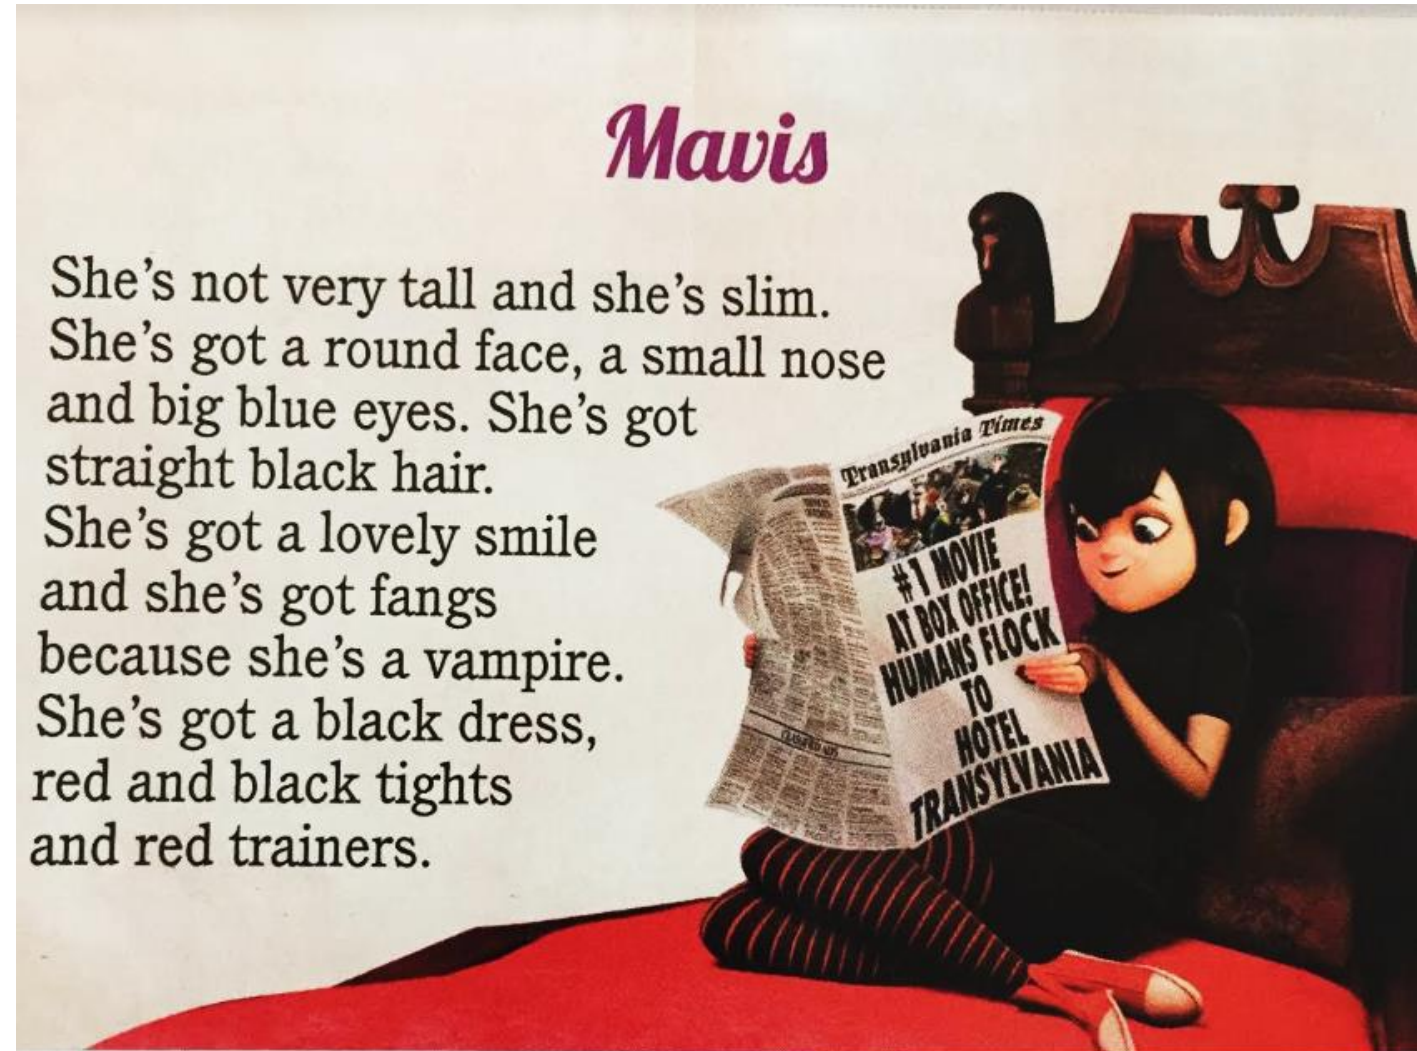

A family portrait

1) Listen to Mavis's description as you read the text.

2) Write down the words related to physical description in the text. Do you remember their meaning?

Mavis

She's not very tall and she's slim. She's got a round face, a small nose and big blue eyes. She's got straight black hair. She's got a lovely smile and she's got fangs because she's a vampire. She's got a black dress, red and black tights and red trainers.

Which text describes Murray?

Which text describes Dennis?

MURRAY

DENNIS

1 He's got big blue eyes, a round face and his hair is curly and red. He's got a small nose and a lovely smile. He is young and very small. He is really cute.

2 His face is very funny. He's got little green eyes, a big smile and a lot of teeth. He's got short legs and long arms. His hands are really small and his feet are really small too. He's very big and ugly. Oh, and... he's a mummy but he's not dangerous at all. His best friend is a zombie.
